The goal of this volunteer position is to create awareness of both preschools by means of posting fliers in the geographic area described in the table above. The volunteers will be walking as a small group through the two neighborhoods surrounding the preschools and putting fliers in the mailboxes of homes and businesses in those areas.

Volunteers will be responsible for:

- Meeting at either the North or South location, getting a pep talk from John Till and/or the preschool director, picking up the fliers, and then walking the route to distribute the fliers
- Maintaining awareness of their surroundings throughout the duration of their time posting fliers

Requirements and qualifications: Volunteers must be able to navigate the area specified to receive fliers.
